ART of LIBRARIES

Art of Libraries is an exciting three year test programme led by Create Gloucestershire with Gloucestershire Libraries to explore if libraries can be new places of “arts every day” for children and young people. #Artoflibraries

There is something for everyone this summer

For more info visit: www.creategloucestershire.co.uk/art-of-libraries

BOOKINGS

Where you see the ticket icon this means book in advance as places are limited.

Most activities you can just drop in unless stated. Otherwise please book on-line through Eventbrite and search for the individual library or pop in to the library.

For updates and features over the summer visit: www.facebook.com/hushhushaol

THE READING AGENCY AND LIBRARIES PRESENT

There is plenty more happening in other libraries across Gloucestershire as part of the Summer Reading Challenge. Over 12 and time on your hands? Libraries are looking for young volunteers to help make this summer even more special. Contact your local library directly.

THANKS Create Gloucestershire and Gloucestershire Libraries are grateful to all of the funders, local partners, volunteers and artists who are working with us on this summer programme. Including Gloucester Rotary Club, Forest of Dean District Council, Explore Learning, Dogs Trust, Busy Needles, Gloucestershire Gateway Trust, University of Gloucestershire, Cheltenham Hackspace and Vision21.
